

A Morning with Kay Goddard – Quilts made to raise funds for war effort in both World Wars

CFWI Office
10.30am – 12.30pm
Friday 26 April 2024

We invite you to come and join us for a talk by Kay Goddard on quilts that were produced as fundraisers for the war effort during both World Wars, the quilts that came from overseas, stitched by American and Canadian communities, and quilts made by Japanese prisoners of war. Kay will bring a selection of her own linen from the 1930s (that came home from Singapore with her great aunt and uncle who narrowly escaped being imprisoned there) to bring the era to life.

Kay Goddard teaches embroidery, patchwork, quilting, and sewing techniques to classes on a regular basis, holds demonstrations and workshops as well as giving talks to a variety of groups.

Refreshments of coffee & cake will be available.

Cost: £8.00
