

Sashiko Workshop

Saturday 2 November 2024
10am to 3pm
CFWI Office

Sashiko is a Japanese type of patchwork, developed over the years to have become a very stylised form of sewing. The day will begin with a talk about its history and how it has developed. Each attendee will be given a pack containing items for them to work on, which they can take home.

Coffee and tea will be available on the day but please bring a packed lunch.

Cost: WI Member £45.00 (This workshop is for WI members only)
