Expressive Flower Painting Techniques in Watercolour and Mixed Media Day School with Teresa Gabriel

Friday 29 April 2022
CFWI Office 10am-4pm

This Day School will push the traditional boundaries of watercolour, exploring loose and expressive ways of combining watercolour with other media.

The day will involve exploring with a variety of different techniques and approaches to watercolour painting, combining different media either underneath or on top of the watercolour.

You will experiment with new ways of applying paint to create different textures and surfaces.

The day will involve experimentation, demonstrations and discussion with the completion of several experimental pieces of work. Expressive flowers will be the inspiration for the day.

The Day School will appeal to anyone with an interest in watercolour and mixed media and would like to be more expressive in their style of work. This will be an enjoyable, fun and creative day, with professional teaching & guidance.

All abilities welcome.

Some materials will be available for use and there will be watercolour paper to purchase on the day. Please bring any equipment you may already have including watercolour paints, brushes, palette knives, wax candle, oil pastels, soft pastels, watercolour pencils, any other water-soluble media, inks & drawing nibs, toothbrush, masking fluid, craft knife, salt, wax candle, water spray, water pot, an apron & any images you may wish to use as starting points.
