

The "Quirky Public Art in Cambridge" walking tour

Monday 20 May 2024

Meet at 11am in front of Great St Mary's Church, Senate House Hill, Cambridge

Stephen Hawking famously said "Remember to look up at the stars and not down at your feet."

Well, you should do the exact opposite if you don't want to miss numerous examples of quirky public art in Cambridge.

This gentle walking tour of approximately 2 to 3 miles, will cover a number of works from the very famous to the less well known and will include one or two Dinky Doors, brought to us by the people who said

"We firmly believe that dinky things, discovered unexpectedly, can deliver dollops of delight against the daily onslaught of miserable miserableness"

Cost: £15.00
